Enter this years 'Paddle for Pounds' Charity Bellboat Regatta in aid of Target Ovarian Cancer and raise money while having fun on the water!

PADDLES UP!

Could you and your colleagues and friends paddle for pounds and help to raise money for Target Ovarian Cancer by paddling a Bellboat? If so - read on...

Open to local companies, societies & clubs on Saturday June 11, 2011, in the former dock around Princes Quay in Hull.

No previous experience is required to race Bellboats
Very safe and loads of fun.

A good helping of enthusiasm and a good sense of humour is all that is required.

ENTRY FEE - £200 per team

Bellboats are nine metres long and based on a catermaran design, making it very stable. They are crewed by eight paddlers and an experienced helm.
(Helms, buoyancy aids and safety equipment will be provided by Kingston Kayak Club in addition to a training session on the day).

Bellboat racing is an exciting way of working together in a fun, competitive environment. It's also ideal for team-building and the regatta will be a great promotional opportunity for your organisation.

Princes Quay is a superb venue for this event due to its central public location and accessibility for spectators

There will be a variety of stalls and activities along the dockside to add to the fun. Bring along family and friends to join in the fun on the day?

Teams are also invited to raise additional sponsorship to boost the appeal further and help us hit the target. Sponsor forms will be provided.

Remember when designing your outfit, freedom of movement will be required.

A promotional banner for each team will be provided to identify your bellboat on the day. All teams will receive a CD of their team in action and the days event.

Entries are limited to 32 teams due to the number of races being held on the day, and will be accepted on a first come first served basis.

Prizes will be awarded for first, second and third placed teams on the day.

If you would like to take part please complete the entry form on the back of this leaflet and return it with your entry fee as soon as possible

Fancy dress is optional but will add to the fun on the day and there will be a prize for the most original outfits.

All costs are covered by the sponsors so every penny goes to charity.
